Summer Graduate & Internship Fair

Tuesday 6 June,
14.30-17.30,
Oxford Town Hall
Deep discipline in credit research, quantitative research and risk management has long been the hallmark of PGIM Fixed Income. Around the globe, our more than 260 investment professionals focus on research-driven, top-down sector allocation and bottom-up security selection.

That’s why more than 500 institutional asset owners worldwide count us as a preferred partner in pursuit of consistent, risk-adjusted returns over time.

Learn more at PGIMFixedIncome.com
Welcome

This fair is full of employers who have internships and jobs still on offer for this summer.

It’s a great opportunity to...

- ... find recruiters keen to attract you to their organisation – and don’t forget there are still 1,000+ vacancies and internships on CareerConnect too
- ... speak to people about what working in different sectors might be like
- ... get your questions answered when it comes to applying

Top tips for the fair:

1. Careers Advisers are available at The Careers Service stand if you want to discuss any ideas or issues
2. Don’t be afraid to approach representatives – they want to meet you, and are happy to answer questions
3. Compare different options – and think about why something feels more attractive; this could be a useful way of figuring out what you’re really looking for.

Whilst there are many sectors represented here today, some choose to not attend fairs, and some have already completed their recruitment cycle for the year. Search CareerConnect (www.careers.ox.ac.uk/CareerConnect) for our full database of immediate jobs and internships, where you can filter results by sector.

AVAILABLE ROLES: Consulting Graduate Programme

GRADUATES SOUGHT: Brand Finance is recruiting for several articulate, self-motivated and enthusiastic graduates for graduate analyst consulting positions at our office in central London. Individuals must have a strong aptitude for economics and finance.

• A 2.1 or first degree in a numerate subject (Economics, Accounting, Maths, Sciences, etc.) • Minimum 450 UCAS points or equivalent • Minimum A grade GCSE in Maths and English • A second degree (e.g. MA, MSc or MBA) would be an advantage • Excellent Excel and financial modelling skills • Strong analytical skills • A good eye for detail • Good organisational skills • Pro-active/ self-starter • Highly motivated and keen to work in small cross-functional teams • Confident communicator • Language ability would be an advantage • Relevant work experience • Strong knowledge of and interest in business and current affairs.

STARTING SALARY: £32,500
LOCATION: East Midlands

ABOUT US: Big ideas brought to life by the brightest folks working together. That’s what we’re all about at Capital One. We’re reinventing money and inspiring lives through our focus on creating helpful, convenient financial products and services that make money make sense for our customers. This is made possible by innovative technology, intelligently applied; and collaborative working, where ideas are shared. As a business, we now see ourselves more as a tech-led business rather than a financial services company. It’s a journey – and it’s one we’d like you and your graduate talent to be part of.

We’re on the lookout for all kinds of skills and backgrounds; personalities and perspectives in our graduates. After all, we’re a business that’s built on individuality, reflecting who our customers are. But all of you will be united in wanting to create products that change the game in financial services. People who challenge and test; people who think laterally as well as logically and live for solving a problem will thrive here. Because to us, it’s all about the ideas; that start sparks that sets the world alight.

The thing about ideas is they need to be explored and invested in. Otherwise they don’t progress; they don’t become what they’re meant to be. The next product innovation. A better way of working. A different outcome to the same problem. Wherever you join us, you’ll get to explore your ideas and potential on a graduate programme that’s right for you.

Be part of changing the future of financial services for the better, for everyone. Be the best you possibly can be at Capital One.

HOW TO APPLY: Please come over and meet us at the event to talk, to go forward and apply please access our careers website. http://www.capitalonecareers.co.uk/future-talent

Ensoft Ltd
www.ensoft.co.uk

LOCATION: South East England

ABOUT US: Ensoft develops software that connects the world. The Internet depends every single day on the code we write. It’s challenging work that matters. It’s also fun - being really good at writing complex software is what we enjoy.

We’ve grown to a team of over sixty software developers by recruiting some of the best Oxbridge graduates each year, and investing heavily in their training. It’s an ideal environment for bright people who want to develop rapidly. It is a very successful business and all employees share in this.

We also offer an excellent work environment with flexible hours and distractions like table football, pool and table tennis. Our very active social scene ranges from weekly breakfast and cinema trips, to fell walking and weekends in places like Reykjavik, Valencia and Stockholm.

Our extensive induction course covers the industry, networking protocols, software development practices and design/programming skills. This is tailored to each individual. Thereafter, there is an ongoing mentor scheme and a two-year ‘certification’ syllabus to ensure comprehensive training. Everyone is encouraged to take responsibility early on and get involved with all aspects of our work developing into senior design or project leader roles.

HOW TO APPLY: Send CV to recruitment@ensoft.co.uk by midnight on Monday 12th June. Our main summer Oxford interview day is on Friday 16th June 2017 at The University Club, 11 Mansfield Road, Oxford, but if you are looking to make a decision sooner than that, let us know in your application.

ICYE UK

www.icye.org.uk

LOCATION: London

ABOUT US: Intercultural Youth Exchange (ICYE UK) is an ethical volunteering charity which believes in a world where the sharing of cultures and ideas is embraced, celebrated and lived.

We work in partnership with an international network of locally managed ICYE organisations to provide supported international volunteer opportunities that directly benefit local communities and encourage young people from around the world to live, learn and work together.

Our volunteers work in countries throughout Latin America, Africa, Asia and Europe from 3 weeks to 12 months, supporting projects in the field of Youth Development and Teaching, HIV/AIDS Awareness and Health Promotion, Human Rights and Environmental Conservation and much more. All projects are run by local staff and rely heavily on the support of local and international volunteers to develop their work. Volunteers actively contribute to the project’s growth and development and so this is the perfect opportunity for Oxford University students who are interested in cross-cultural communication and International development issues.

Our cultural programme offers volunteers a unique opportunity to gain a real insight into ‘development in action’ as well as develop key personal skills such as language skills, communication, liaison and diplomacy etc- all of which are vital for going into the work place after graduation.

What does ICYE UK offer volunteers? Our focus is on our extensive support and training for each and every volunteer. Pre-departure training consists of intercultural awareness, conflict resolution and the effects of prejudice + stereotyping, as well as the practicalities of a placement.

On-arrival training in country includes language lessons and country knowledge. Meanwhile, the help we provide with fundraising means our volunteers are well supported while they are raising funds towards their programme fee.

HOW TO APPLY: Please contact Emma Kreeger for details of information days.

Jazz Networks

www.jazznetworks.com

LOCATION: South East England

ABOUT US: JAZZ NETWORKS is a tech start-up, founded in May 2016 to tackle a new problem, the challenge of solving Enterprise Data / Network security. To do this, we are using an approach that will drive Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning across the guts of data flow and user behaviour to add effective management of security layers. This is a new idea and has not been solved yet, so we will be creating a product that will challenge the industry norm and break boundaries.

We are looking for extremely bright engineers from graduate level up to experienced architects to join us as full stack developers in our R&D team in either London (West) or Oslo, Norway.

HOW TO APPLY: Simply email your CV.

EMAIL: marcus@jazznetworks.com

IMMEDIATE EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

AVAILABLE ROLES: Software Engineers, Software Developers, Machine Learning scientists

Symplectic

symplectic.co.uk

LOCATION: London

ABOUT US: Symplectic is a leading developer of research information management systems and our flagship product Elements is used by thousands of researchers based in research institutions across the globe.

With an open-plan office in our King’s Cross headquarters, our workspace is light and modern, and with a collaborative working environment you’ll find yourself working with and learning from the whole team. Solving complex problems and keeping our clients happy is what we do best, and we’d like someone that will help us maintain these high standards.

HOW TO APPLY: Please send a covering letter and your CV via email.

EMAIL: recruitment@symplectic.co.uk

AVAILABLE ROLES: Software Developer

NUMBER AVAILABLE: 1

GRADUATES SOUGHT: We’re looking for someone with excellent academic results in any scientific or technical subject – but not necessarily computer science. A relevant degree would be advantageous, but otherwise if there is evidence you can show us of your excellent analytical problem-solving skills, we’d be willing to consider you for the position.

You should also have superb communication skills and written English, be eager to share your ideas and learn from others, and take pride in producing high quality work.

http://symplectic.co.uk/job/software-developer/

STARTING SALARY: Competitive, based on experience

WORK EXPERIENCE OPPORTUNITIES FOR SUMMER 2017

AVAILABLE ROLES: We have one internship available. As an intern at Symplectic you would be given real responsibilities and real work. Depending on your preference and our needs, these could be from a range of areas, including: systems implementation at some of the world’s best universities; programming on state-of-the-art technologies; product management of our software range; front-line support with a high degree of client interaction; or you could make your mark on our highly regarded documentation suite. This internship is an opportunity to begin to build a network of contacts in a vibrant industry and gain valuable experience for your career. Also don’t forget you’ll get paid to have fun over the summer.

LENGTH OF INTERNSHIP: 10 weeks from early July. Other times of year subject to availability of mentoring staff.

Teach First

www.teachfirst.org.uk

ABOUT US: If you’re looking for a challenge - one where you can use your intelligence and personality to help solve one of the country’s biggest problems - Teach First has a unique opportunity for you.

The link between how well you do at school and in life and how much your family earns is stronger in the UK than almost anywhere in the developed world. We’re changing this and you can too.

Young people in low-income communities need leaders to bring out the best in them. We support exceptional people like you to become leaders through our two-year Leadership Development Programme in schools across the country.

You’ll gain a fully-funded Postgraduate Diploma in Education, worth double the credits of a PGCE, and coaching to develop your leadership qualities. If you can inspire in the classroom, you can bring resilience, efficiency and imagination to any environment, wherever your career takes you.

More than 10,000 people have joined our programme so far. Many have remained in the classroom, many others are in leadership roles across all sectors of the economy. What they share is a belief that every child should have equal opportunities, and their contribution towards this goal.

Apply now for a career-defining opportunity.

HOW TO APPLY: To successfully engage the full potential of your students – and to take advantage of the opportunities Teach First presents – you’ll need to be someone with bright ideas, strong communication skills and gritty determination.

More than anything else, you’ll believe that it’s unfair that a child’s success in life is determined by their parents’ income. We’re looking for people who are committed to changing that with us.

You can apply online through our website:

EMAIL:faq@teachfirst.org.uk

IMMEDIATE EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

AVAILABLE ROLES: Leadership Development Programme

GRADUATES SOUGHT: We look for those that match our selection competencies:

Humility, Respect, and Empathy; Interaction; Knowledge; Leadership; Planning and Organising; Problem Solving; Resilience; Self-evaluation
Tesco PLC

www.tesco.com

LOCATIONS: London, South West England

ABOUT US: Join our team of change managers, analysts and data scientists leading strategic projects to improve how our business operates.

Every day, 11 million customers visit Tesco stores. Here in the Supply Chain Transformation team we work to anticipate the needs of all of them to make sure that they can get what they want from us. Did you know that a 10 degree rise in temperature means we sell 300% more barbecue meat and 50% more lettuce? We use this relationship to make sure we order products in the right amounts to give our shoppers what they want while minimising the amount that goes to waste.

Based on our data-driven insight, collaboration with Tesco colleagues and in partnership with our suppliers, our projects make significant, lasting changes to the UK’s biggest retailer. And we can really see the changes we make: as well as measuring benefits in the office, we see them in visits to our stores and throughout the Supply Chain.

A career with us allows you to creatively solve problems, develop systems using mathematical modelling and algorithm design, and introduce better ways of working within our team and across our offices and suppliers.

Do you want to join us? We’re looking to hire keen problem-solvers who can demonstrate:

• Strong business acumen and the drive to make changes to the way we operate
• Excellent analytical and numerical skills
• The ability to simplify complex issues and implement practical solutions
• Excellent verbal and written communication skills.
