

LAW FAIR

WEDNESDAY 21 OCTOBER 2020
EXHIBITORS FROM 12:00-18:00

THE FAIR FOR THE LAW SECTOR

Meet representatives from Barristers' Chambers, Solicitors' Practices, and a variety of other organisations.

www.careers.ox.ac.uk/careers-fairs

WELCOME TO THE LAW FAIR

This event, organised by the Careers Service, offers you the opportunity to find out about a variety of different career options across the Law sector.

You will be able to meet a number of major recruiters who are keen to attract students and graduates to their organisation, compare different organisations and find out about graduate and work experience opportunities. Not all the recruiters participating in this event are giving a presentation in Oxford this year, so this may be your only chance to meet them informally.

Top tips

Use this booklet to plan your fair tactics:

- Check who is attending and read their booklet entry before you speak to them.
- Plan some questions to ask e.g. what are the pros and cons of their work? Or, what tips can they give you to increase your chances of being selected for work experience or employment?
- Be keen and attentive – first impressions count!
- Talk to as many people as you can.
- Remember to record who you spoke to and key points of your conversations.

COVINGTON & BURLING LLP

Covington & Burling LLP was founded in Washington, DC a century ago. Today, Covington has more than 1,000 lawyers and advisers across our offices in Africa, Asia, Europe, the Middle East, and the United States.

We offer services across a wide range of practice areas, advising clients on their most challenging and complex matters. Most of the work has an international element, and all our practice groups operate across borders. Our distinctively collaborative culture allows us to be truly one team globally, drawing on the diverse experience of lawyers across the firm.

At Covington, you will have an opportunity to work on cutting-edge deals for international and UK corporates such as Microsoft, Astra Zeneca and Facebook, Fortune 100 businesses and leading technology, life sciences and media companies. We have represented Facebook, Inc in its US$22 billion acquisition of WhatsApp and its US$1 billion acquisition of Instagram. We also advised Illumina on a four-year project that will map genomes for breakthroughs into cancer and rare diseases. Most recently we have advised on a deal in which Pfizer & BioNTech have agreed to work together to develop a covid-19 vaccine.

MACFARLANES LLP

Macfarlanes is a distinctive London-based law firm. The firm is known for the quality of its work; not just in dealing with the full range of corporate and commercial matters, but in advising clients on their private affairs as well.

Macfarlanes has made a deliberate choice to remain smaller than many of its peers. The cohesive nature of the firm means that clients benefit from collective experience and close-knit teams. The firm has decided against growth at the expense of quality, against size at the expense of efficiency and agility. So whilst large enough to advise on the most complex matters, the firm is also small enough to ensure that its people and work are exceptional, without fail.

At Macfarlanes, we don't have any preconceptions about who you are or where you're from. We want people who are academically strong, with determination and drive. For us, it's your potential that really counts. We'll want to see that you have resilience, determination and exceptional communication skills. Most of all, we are looking for people who will relish the chance to work alongside some of the world's most successful and ambitious businesses and individuals.

3 VERULAM BUILDINGS

3 Verulam Buildings is one of the UK's principal sets of barristers' chambers, with over 90 members specialising across the full spectrum of commercial law. Members of 3VB advise and act in disputes both in the UK and worldwide. Our legal excellence and the quality of service provided to our clients are consistently praised in the leading legal directories.

3VB's policy is to offer pupillage only to those candidates with the potential to become tenants in chambers. 3VB recruits no more pupils than there are available spaces for new tenants. Each pupil is judged solely on his or her own merit.

3VB is committed to equality of opportunity and diversity in the workplace. We strive to ensure that the principle of fair, equal treatment is upheld in all areas of our business, including recruitment of pupils. 3VB have recently created, along with five other leading sets of chambers, the Mentoring for Underrepresented Groups Scheme, which aims to support and encourage individuals from groups which are underrepresented at the Bar of England and Wales (and in particular the commercial bar) to pursue careers as barristers.

QUADRANT CHAMBERS

A pupillage at Quadrant Chambers will help you develop the skills, knowledge and sound judgement you need to succeed as a commercial barrister. We offer up to three fully-funded, 12 month pupillages every year. Each pupillage carries an award of £65,000.

We measure these qualities via assessment of your application, your academic records, extra-curricular activities and mooting performance.

Successful candidates have excellent academic records, with most having or predicted a first class degree. You need at least a high upper second degree to apply for pupillage.

While many of our applicants read law in their undergraduate or postgraduate degrees, we welcome candidates who studied other rigorous academic disciplines.

You are assigned three successive supervisors over the course of the pupillage.

Pupils also have the opportunity to shadow their pupil supervisor at hearings and conferences.

As part of your training, you must complete a series of advocacy exercises and written assignments.

Additional practice and training exercises can be arranged if necessary.
