

Virtual LAW FAIR

WEDNESDAY, 20 OCTOBER 2021
STANDS LIVE: 12:30-17:30

Attend presentations, browse jobs, and meet representatives from Barristers' Chambers, Solicitors' Practices, and a variety of other organisations.

www.careers.ox.ac.uk/fairs

Welcome to the Law Fair

Meet recruiters, attend presentations, explore jobs, and find out about the wide range of opportunities within the legal profession.

The Law Fair is a golden opportunity for you to meet and talk to lawyers, trainees, pupils, other legal professionals, recruitment managers, and course tutors. This is your chance to find out about their organisations, what they offer in the way of training and legal work, and the opportunities available to you.

In addition to representatives from Barristers' Chambers, and Solicitors' Practices (including International, City, and Regional firms), you will find a variety of other organisations, including the major institutions that provide professional legal training.

This is an event not to be missed, whether you are a law or non-law student, and whatever the stage of your legal career planning may be, or your awareness of the legal profession.

Top tips

Use this booklet to plan your fair tactics:

- Check who is attending and read their booklet entry before you speak to them.
- Plan some questions to ask e.g. what are the pros and cons of their work? Or, what tips can they give you to increase your chances of being selected for work experience or employment?
- Be keen and attentive – first impressions count!
- Talk to as many people as you can.
- Remember to record who you spoke to and key points of your conversations.

CHARLES RUSSELL SPEECHLYS LLP

Charles Russell Speechlys is an international law firm specialising in the full spectrum of business and personal needs. We are headquartered in London, with offices in the UK, Europe, the Middle East and Hong Kong.

We're only human. And we consider that our superpower, not a weakness. We've built our firm on establishing trusted, personal relationships with our clients. After all, we are here to guide them through their most pressing challenges and most rewarding opportunities. We do this by getting to the heart of our clients' needs to bring them best-fit solutions – based on our years of experience, collective legal expertise and international outlook.

We have a broad range of skills and experience across the full spectrum of business and personal needs. We know it's not enough to understand the law – we have to understand our clients just as well. So, we apply a people-focused lens to every action we recommend to our clients. Our unique approach to law has made us a leader in the world of dynamic growth and family businesses, and among the world's leading creators and owners of private wealth and their families. Major corporates and institutions benefit from our personalised approach as we embed ourselves in the teams of our clients.

HFW

We are a sector-focused, entrepreneurial law firm. But there's more to us than that.

We have a passion for the sectors we work in –whether we are solving complex issues across construction, aviation and shipping, or providing advice across insurance, commodities and energy. We're people who like to get things done. It's this pragmatism, combined with our creative approach, that makes us our clients' go-to commercial advisers.

And we are, unapologetically, absolute experts in what we advise our clients on. So yes, we're different. Our clients say "less traditional" – "progressive", even.

We say we're specialist lawyers here to add value to our clients.

Every year we recruit only a small number of trainees- 15 per year. A training contract at HFW consists of four six month seats – typically three contentious seats and one transactional seat, with at least one seat spent abroad gaining a global perspective of our work and clients.

Our trainees share our entrepreneurial spirit and are bright and commercial.

They come from a variety of backgrounds and disciplines and we welcome applications from both law and non-law students and undergraduates and experienced graduates alike.

JONES DAY

One Firm Worldwide

Jones Day is a global law firm with more than 2,500 lawyers in 42 offices across five continents. The Firm is distinguished by: a singular tradition of client service; the mutual commitment to, and the seamless collaboration of, a true partnership; formidable legal talent across multiple disciplines and jurisdictions; and shared professional values that focus on client needs.

As a truly global law firm, Jones Day lawyers enjoy an exciting career alongside colleagues around the world. New lawyers have the opportunity to be involved in demanding and complex matters, advising multinational clients encountering globalized challenges.

Non-rotational Training Contract

Our distinctive training contract structure is integral to our culture and success and the benefits are felt at every level. In the absence of a rigid seat-system, trainees have the flexibility to mould their career from the earliest opportunity and enjoy a high level of responsibility. Our trainees are quickly integrated into various teams across the Firm and gain unparalleled exposure to different areas of law. Trainees are never held back by set 'trainee' tasks or have to drop an interesting case or deal to move on to another department. This aids strong client bonds and opportunities to assist on all aspects of a transaction.

Apply

Our work placement schemes over the Winter, Spring and Summer vacations are the route to our way of training. Operating like mini-training contracts, you gain a real insight into trainee life at our global law firm.

ONE ESSEX COURT

One Essex Court is a leading set of barristers' chambers, specialising in commercial disputes. Our members provide specialist advice and advocacy services worldwide, which include all areas of dispute resolution, litigation and arbitration.

The principal areas of practice are arbitration, banking and financial services, commercial litigation, civil fraud and investigations, company and insolvency, competition and EU law, energy and natural resources, insurance and reinsurance, intellectual property, media, entertainment and broadcasting, professional liability, public law, sports, gaming and licensing and tax and revenue law.

Barristers at One Essex Court are drawn from the very best candidates coming to the Commercial Bar each year. Indeed, the ability of the set to continually attract the most talented pupils year-on-year, is a fundamental reason for chambers' enduring position at the very top of the market. The selection process is naturally focused on intellectual excellence, but prospective pupils and tenants must also exhibit other valuable characteristics which, through a constant process of feedback from clients, we understand are equally valued.

QUADRANT CHAMBERS

A pupillage at Quadrant Chambers will help you develop the skills, knowledge and sound judgement you need to succeed as a commercial barrister. We offer up to three fully-funded, 12-month pupillages every year. Each pupillage carries an award of £65,000. We measure these qualities via assessment of your application, your academic records, extra-curricular activities and mooting performance.

Successful candidates have excellent academic records, with most having or predicted a first class degree. You need at least a high upper second degree to apply for pupillage. While many of our applicants read law in their undergraduate or postgraduate degrees, we welcome candidates who studied other rigorous academic disciplines. You are assigned three successive supervisors over the course of the pupillage. Pupils also have the opportunity to shadow their pupil supervisor at hearings and conferences. As part of your training, you must complete a series of advocacy exercises and written assignments. Additional practice and training exercises can be arranged if necessary.

ORGANISATIONS

THE COURT OF JUSTICE OF THE EUROPEAN UNION

The Court of Justice of the European Union reviews the legality of the acts of the institutions of the European Union, ensures that the Member States comply with their obligations under the Treaties, and interprets EU law at the request of national courts and tribunals. It thus constitutes the supreme judicial authority of the European Union and, together with the courts and tribunals of the Member States, works to ensure the uniform application and interpretation of EU law.

As each Member State has its own official language and specific legal system, the Court is a multilingual institution. It is required to give full effect to the principle of multilingualism, in order both to communicate with parties in the language of the proceedings and to ensure that its case-law can be read and understood in all Member States.

The English Translation Unit translates into English the judgments, orders and other documents drafted by the Court in French, as well as documents submitted to the Court in other official EU languages. We are looking for new lawyer linguists and trainees to join our team in Luxembourg, as well as freelance translators interested in working with us.
